

Table of Contents

Coping with peripherality: local resilience between policies and practices. Editorial note. Maria Giulia Pezzi, Giulia Urso	pp. 1-23
Inner Peripheries: an oxymoron or a real challenge for territorial cohesion? Andrew Copus, Francesco Mantino, Joan Noguera	pp. 24-49
Services for citizens in peripheral areas: a hierarchy of centrality based on their availability and accessibility Simone Garlandini, Gian Paolo Torricelli	pp. 50-79
Tourism as a driver of development in the Inner Areas Arcangela Andreoli, Francesco Silvestri	pp. 80-99
Economic performance and profitability of agricultural holdings in Inner Areas Luca Cesaro, Sonia Marongiu	pp. 100-124
Innovation in rural development: “neorural” farmers branding local quality of food and territory Brigida Orria, Vincenzo Luise	pp. 125-153
From peripheral hamlet to craft beer capital: Apecchio and the ‘Alogastronomia’ Maria Giulia Pezzi	pp. 154-185
The Way to the Western European Land’s End. The Case of Finisterre (Galicia, Spain) Lucrezia Lopez, Yamilé Pérez Guilarte, Rubén C. Lois González	pp. 186-212
Transparency in Planning Practice: Contemporary urban reform in India Chandrima Mukhopadhyay	pp. 213-233